

Three Wise Kangaroos

Video - answer key

1. You are immersed in the culture and live as a local.
2. Ed Kushins pioneered the concept in 1996. Originally it had 100 members.
3. You are not cramped, you are living in a home environment.
4. They don't have to leave their pets at a kennel. They can either take the pets with them or leave them at home for the exchange partners to look after.
5. The fear of the stranger stealing something or doing some damage. However, the way the exchange is organized means the exchange partner is not a stranger. You exchange phone calls with them and get to know each other.
6. Visiting the local markets, experiencing the history of local places.
7. People used to be scared of or unsure about those services. Now they have become mainstream services that people trust.

Vocabulary practice - answer key

1. enchanted
2. long-lost
3. immersed
4. adventurous
5. cramped
6. kennel
7. testimonial