

Communicative grammar - passive forms - business

Identify all the passive forms, underline them, then answer the questions.

Is your company managed well?	Are you expected to take work home if you don't manage to do everything within your working hours?
Is enough emphasis put on employee welfare in your company?	Is a hot-desking system used in your in company? What do you think of it?
What would you do if you were asked to accept more work?	Have you ever been asked an awkward question during a job interview?
Have you ever been rejected for a job?	When was the last time you felt you had been thrown in at the deep end?
Do you mind being called by your boss after 10 pm?	What would you do if you were informed by your boss via a text message that you had been sacked?
What incentives are offered to people who work extra hard in your company?	Are you given a choice as to whether to work from home or in the office?
Is your company likely to be taken over by a bigger player on the market?	How are decisions made in your organisation? Do you have a say in what and how things are done?