

Adverb-adjective collocations

Match the halves to make useful collocations

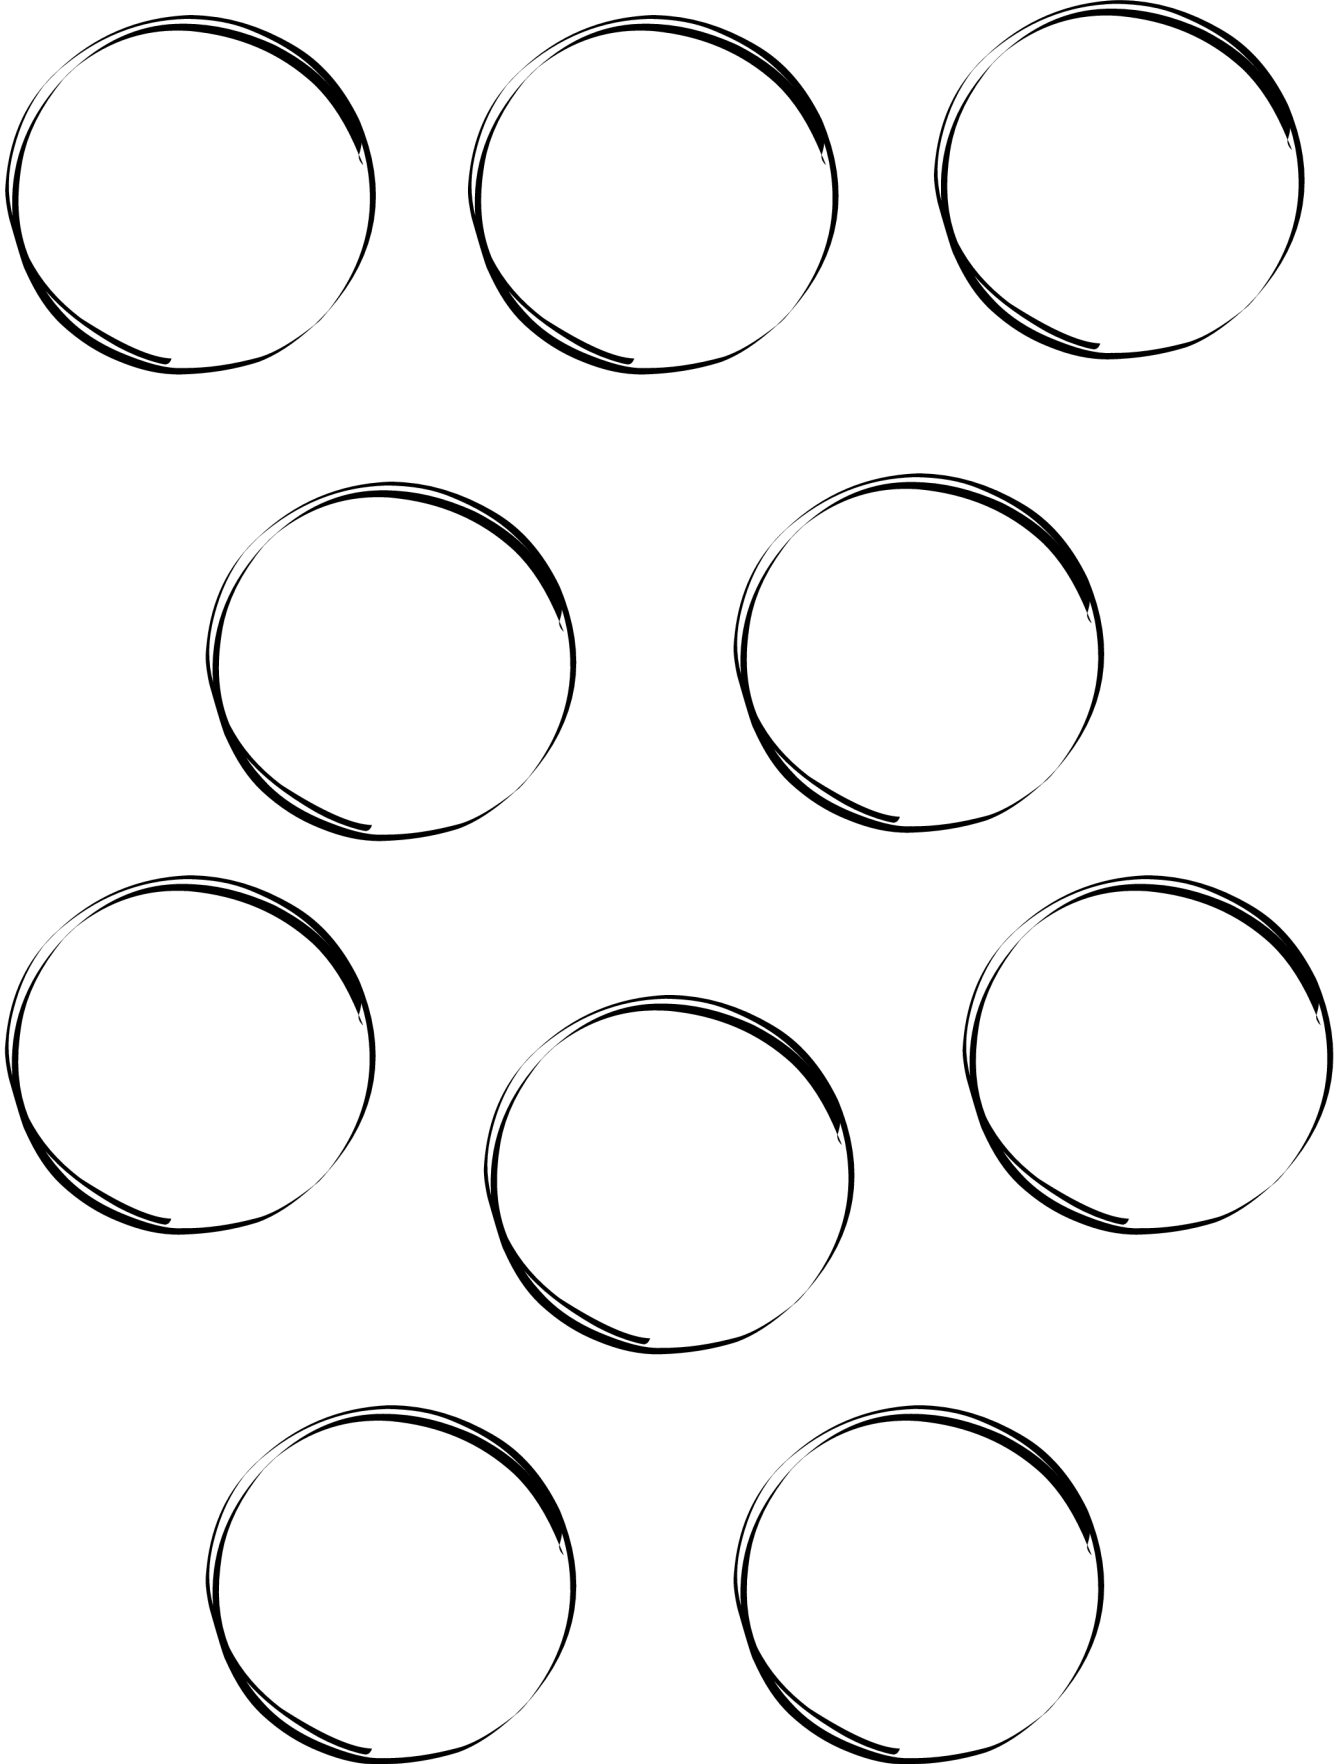

highly	different
dramatically	opposed
deeply	controversial
strongly	forbidden
strictly	concerned

heavily	useless
utterly	necessary
absolutely	aware
fully	effective
highly	critical

perfectly	profitable
bitterly	accepted
widely	normal
highly	important
vitally	disappointed

Adverb-adjective collocations

Fill in the circles with your own ideas corresponding to the collocations on the previous page.

The form consists of ten empty circles arranged in four rows. The first row has three circles, the second and third rows each have two circles, and the fourth row has two circles. These circles are intended for students to write their own ideas corresponding to the collocations from the previous page.

Adverb-adjective collocations- ANSWER KEY

Match the halves to make useful collocations

highly	controversial
dramatically	different
deeply	concerned
strongly	opposed
strictly	forbidden

heavily	critical
utterly	useless
absolutely	necessary
fully	aware
highly	effective

perfectly	normal
bitterly	disappointed
widely	accepted
highly	profitable
vitaly	important